

Fahrenheit Follies Worksheet

Name _____

Date _____

Fill in the blank with solid, liquid, or gas.

1. Water vapor is an example of a _____.
2. Water is an example of a _____.

True or False

3. The mercury in a thermometer will rise if it is placed in cold water. _____
4. The mercury in a thermometer will rise if it is placed in hot water. _____
5. A thermometer measures temperature. _____

Fill in the blank with the correct answer.

6. _____ degrees is cold.
7. _____ degrees is warm.
8. _____ degrees is very hot.

Read and answer the following questions.

9. If I fill a cup of water with ice, is the water most likely or least likely to get cold?
_____

10. If I take ice out of a glass of water, is the water most likely or least likely to get cold?
_____.

Fahrenheit Follies Worksheet

11. Think about the pattern of the rain cycle. Label the events 1,2,3,4 in order of what happens.

_____ Water rises in the form of water vapor.

_____ The sun heats water on Earth.

_____ When the cloud gets too heavy with water vapor it rains.

_____ Water vapor condenses to form clouds.