

Pulley

A pulley is a wheel with a rope around it. The rope fits into the groove on the wheel. The larger the wheel, the less force will be needed to move the load. There are two parts to a pulley, the wheel and the rope. The load and the force move in opposite directions. As the rope is pulled down, the flag goes up.

