

Big Dog and String-bean

Big Dog has a sister called String-bean. He is big and she is very little. They both love to play with a ball. They keep it in their doghouse. It stays there until they want to play. At night they sleep in their doghouse. It is cozy and warm.

Pronouns Introduction

1. Who does the word he stand for in the paragraph? _____
Write a sentence about the same character using the pronoun he. _____
2. What words does they refer to? _____
Write a sentence about the same characters using the pronoun they. _____
3. What does the word it refer to in the sentence, “ They keep it in their doghouse”? _____
Write a sentence about the same thing using the pronoun it. _____

Answers: 1. Big Dog 2. Big Dog and String-bean 3. ball

Name _____

Date _____

Big Dog and String-bean Practice Sheet

Read the sentences and answer the questions. The questions help you practice using pronouns in sentences.

1. Lou and Sue discovered that they both play the guitar.
What does they stand for? _____
Write a sentence about the same people using the pronoun they.

2. John visited the school where he will go next year.
What does he stand for? _____
Write a sentence about the same person using the pronoun he.

3. The students asked if they could play outside.
What does they stand for? _____
Write a sentence about the same people using the pronoun they.

4. Jill asked her parents if she could go to the movie.
What does she stand for? _____
Write a sentence about the same person using the pronoun she.

5. Joan asked Jim if she could see his new puppy.
What does she stand for? _____
What does his stand for? _____
6. Betty asked her teacher if she could sharpen her pencil.
What does she stand for? _____
7. The car got a flat tire on its rear wheel.
What does its stand for? _____
Write a sentence about the same thing using the pronoun its.

8. Sue and I got what we wanted in the mail.
What does we stand for? _____
Write a sentence about the same people using the pronoun we.

9. I saw the president. He smiled at me.
What does he stand for? _____
10. Bill and I thought we would go to the store.
What does we stand for? _____
11. Eric and Tommy asked if they could ride in the back seat.
What does they stand for? _____

12. John got in the car that he bought last week.
What does he stand for? _____
Write a sentence about the person using the pronoun he.

13. The house lost its roof during the storm.
What does its stand for? _____
Write a sentence about the thing using the pronoun its.

14. Jerry and I asked if we could spend the night together.
What does we stand for? _____
15. Polly told her mother that she would clear the table.
What does she stand for? _____
Write a sentence about the person using the word she.

Big Dog and String-bean Answer Key

Answer Key:

1. Lou and Sue
2. John
3. the students
4. Jill
5. Joan
Jim
6. Betty
7. the car
8. Sue and I
9. the president
10. Bill and I
11. Eric and Tommy
12. John
13. the house
14. Jerry and I
15. Polly